FARMVILLE.

We have been pouring through the between-seasons of late and the usual dullness has been felt in our trade circles, that is outside of tobacco circles and after all Farmville draws its life-blood from the "weed." It is to be regretted that we carry so many eggs in that basket, but the habit has been formed and bad habits as well as good ones take strong holds upon persons and places. I was in a town recently where the habit is for everybody to take an after-dinner nap and not to indulge the luxury, (for it is a luxury) classes one with the curious folks. This habit with the business men of our town would be considered monstrous, and yet we allowed a knitting mill to die and have never yet gotten together to organize a furniture factory, or shoe factory, or a hub and spoke factory or any other factory, not even a tobacco manufacturing plant. This is habit and bad habit.

It begins to look as though the tobacco growers of this section would win in their fight against the tobacco buyers. Successful and progressive farmers have taken up the fight and under their leadership victory ought to be certain. Conspicuous among most leaders is to be seen the stalwart form and strong arm of Mr. E. T. Bondurant who not only makes "two blades of grass grow where only one grew before" but who gives more than reason why farmers should have been handed justice. He simply asks the buyers of their products to "live and let live" Mr. Bondurant has recently visited Campbell county and wherever he goes he wins friends

The recent entertainment which was given by Misses Alice and Hattie Paulette was the social event of the season.

Mrs. Thos. Clark has been seriously sick.

Now that the snow has gone our pleasure horses are enjoying comfortable leisure.

There will be a number of handsome memorial win lows in the new Methodist church.

Spring fishing has opened on the banks of the Appomattox.

Lent is being observed by our Episcopal friends.

The Easter bonnet, which is due this time on the 31st of March, is already giving some people real concern. The Farmville market will have the latest and the best, and owing to this fact no orders are sent to the great cities.

It was great relief when zero weather had its back broken.

The Star Warehouse has been shining out brightly during the tobacco season. The managers are wide awake, accomodating and popular.

Nothing new on the subject of the steam boat line between Petersburg and Farmville.

The beauty and chivalry of our town attended the 22nd exercises at Hampden Sidney. Richmond would destroy such entertainments, so far as Prince Edward is concerned this is unadulterated selfishness on the part of Richmond. Our town council has appointed a committee to meet with the trustees of the college with a view of locating the institution here. If it must come to the railroad this is an ideal place for it. The trouble will be in raising money for the new buildings. Richmond with its cigarette multi-millionaire to back her got our Seminary and the "longest pole" may 'get the simmon' again. Who is 'almighty' in this world but the dollar.

Our hangmen are not experts certainly not at testing the strength of ropes. If the next legislature don't see to it that all such honors are enacted within the penitentiary enclosure his neglect will amount to a crime itself.

Farmville is 'going for' the Tidewater & Western too. Its money built the road and so far the investment has been a lamentable failure.

Mr. George E. Cox, of Cox's corner notoriety, has moved into his renovated store.

Mr. B. L. Anderson is confined to his home by continued illness. Mrs. Anderson, who sustained a fracture of the hip recently, is improving.

Mr. Warren Walker has been on the sick list.

Mr. George Butcher, of Hampden Sidney, is employed by Mr. Miller, who is in charge of the Hipsley business.

Dr. Forbyth, of Kores, has been locturing in town of late, and also talked to the students at Hampden Sidney.

A new bridge has been erected over Gross branch leading to East Farmville. This is not much needed in the dry season but in high water time is an essential.

Work on the new Methodist church progresses slowly. I cannot understand why such work languishes when the average pay per day of a brick layer is four to five dollars while that of the average school teacher is about one dollar.

Rev. Mr. Hatcher, pastor of the Methodist church has been visiting in Norfolk.

Our newly married friends look serene and happy.

Our sportsmen are taking advantage of the robin season. They must hurry as the season is short.

Dr. Gills has been on the sick list. Something rare in his experience.

Mrs. Wade has returned home after a pleasant visit to friends in Albemarle.

Mr. R. W. Garnett, our new post master will be entirely acceptable to our people. Though a native of Buckingham he has lived here for years and has won the confidence and respect of all who have known him.

A number of our people attended the 'hanging' and the regret is that it was badly and bunglingly done.

Rev. Mr Hatcher has been preaching most acceptably to our friends of the Episcopal church, who ask for the time being without a rector.

MEMORIAM.

One more home is crushed, bowed and saddened,
One more chair is vacant now,
Vanished seems the star that gladdened
All that would its light allow.

Thou hast left us, thou hast gone
From thy loved ones here below;
And it proves, pierces like an arrow,
Thy welcome voice to hear no more.

Alone, solitary and alone thou didst fall in death,
Alone, without the touch of human hand;
Yet we have faith that Christ was with thee
And bore thy spirit to that happy land.

Six years ago we were sadly weeping,
Mother's spirit had taken its flight;
Now by her side father is sleeping,
And we are wrapped in gloom and night.

Mother, father, as we drift down Life's tide,
We need thy kind, protecting care;
We miss thee in our home, at the fire side,
We miss thee oh we miss thee everywhere.

But we must not murmur nor complain
At the work of God's unerring hand:
But let us hope to meet them again,
In a home eternal in that happy land.

DAUGHTER.

Buckingham.

"The snow, the beautiful snow" came last week but school Inspector Thomas came not. He was expected to pay a visit to our High School and teachers and scholars were on the "qui vive" all of Tuesday. At any rate lessons were not prepared, and the junior of the school building an extra morning and cleaning, so we were not much better off. I am always glad when my friends say they are coming to spend a certain day with us, if they come I enjoy their company and a good dinner, if they dispute it by not coming I have the consolation of a good dinner.

Mr. J. H. Robertson went to Arvonia last week to spend several days surveying.

The new hotel at Arvonia has been rented out; application was made to secure a lease on this property by a party in West Virginia, only a few days too late.

Mr. W. A. Fones has been appointed to administer on the estate of the late Powhatan Barnes, and there will be a public sale of the personal property

The price of flour has advanced about 30 cents on the barrel on the local market, and corn be on the bushel, and winter oats are 75c a bushel.

The coal leading from this place to Dillwyn is simply awful, but notwithstanding this, ties are being hauled there and sold and the money invested in hay and mill feed. Ties are high, hay and mill feed higher still. Black-smiths have gone up 10 cents in the price for horse-shoeing and 5c each on sharpening tools.

Large quantities of tobacco were wagoned to Dillwyn last week some sold and some pooled.

Mr. Samuel P. Agee was married to Miss Wood on the 27th. This is Sam's third venture in the matrimonial line and he is by no means an old looking man yet.

Mr. John Eldredge Jr. went to Richmond for what it is hoped will be the last treatment required to restore full use of the hand and arm that have given him so much trouble and pain. Mr. Eldredge is one of our very best citizens and has the unfeigned sympathy of the whole community.

Mr. Emmett Gillespie was married to Miss Word on the 26 h, and they will make their future home in Pennsylvania, where Mr. Gillespie is now a telegraph operator. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mr. D. W. Word of Enonville and is an unusually pretty girl.

Mrs. Delia Ellis is not expected to finish out her term as principal of the colored school here and the assistant will probably be employed by the board to complete the session.

The daily papers have been most sought for during the Strother-Bywaters trial in Culpeper County, and much speculation was indulged in as to what Mrs. Viola Bywaters, the short while wife-widow would say on the witness stand. What she did say was candid to a degree. I have no opinion of any such plea as "emotional insanity" such as was sought to be proven by the defense in this case, but, I think if any man ever married kitting at the hands of the brothers of an injured girl it was in this case, if the evidence published is true.

A writer in the Southside Virginian of last week has seen fit to differ with my views as to the population of this county now, in comparison with what it was ten years ago, and has this to say: "There has never been a time in the history of Buckingham county when as many people lived within its borders as there are today." I wish I could know that this assertion was true; and upon reading it I went and interviewed three prominent citizens here, the first one said the population had, e thought decreased at least 20 per cent in the last decade, the second put it at 25 per cent and the third estimated it at 22½ per cent. One man who holds a federal office and travels over the county often said we had lost at least 3000 inhabitants in the last ten years No man, or set of men, would with more pleasure write of an increase of desirable inhabitants, nor no paper than I, to mention the fact that even a part of those who have sought work in other places had come back, but the fact remains as I first stated.

I knew a pretty little black eyed girl once, who old her mother that her was a fly in the pickle on the table, the mother who was busy entertaining her guests, said, no it was only some spice she saw; but this little girl knew a fly when she saw one, and holding it up on her fork she said, "Ma do spice have wings?" If our young men and women had had wings to fly away, they could with no more certainty, have gone away; If, however, they would stay here and work as hard and show as much enterprise as they have to do in other places, they could make Buckingham a veritable garden spot, and if those who are here would let lumber and Railroad ties severely alone and improve their lands and ship as much hay and grain out of, as is shipped into the County, then would we see an era of permanent prosperity such as we would be justly proud of

I am requested to again call attention to the meeting at this place on the 11th inst., when farmers are invited to bring samples of farm produce, for the best of which prizes are offered by the Committee.

Prizes for Buckingham Products.

Our Board of Supervisors have voted to make an appropriation of $500 for an exhibit from Buckingham county at the Jamestown Exposition. The C & O Ry. Co. have secured us space in their booth and ask in the Virginia Building. The success of our exhibit depends upon the interest our people take in securing a good display of our farm and mineral resources. We are confident that our county has resources that will compare favorably with other counties of the State, but unless we as one ourselves to the responsibility of this opportunity, we will appear to be far behind these other counties which are making every effort to be well represented at Jamestown. Let us patriotic citizens of Buckingham County, proud of her history and decendants see to it that she is well represented at this great exposition.

The committee, chosen with our Board of Supervisors have decided to offer small premiums for the best farm product exhibited at the Court House on the 2nd Monday in March

The prizes as follows:—Best 5 lb. sample of leaf tobacco, 1st prize $10 2nd prize $5.00 3rd prize $3.00 4th prize $2.00.

Wheat—Best sample, 1 bushel. 1st prize $5 00 2nd prize $2.50.

Corn:—Best sample 1 bushel. 1st prize $5 00 2nd prize $2.50.

Irish Potatoes:—Best sample 1 peck. 1st prize $2 00, 2nd prize $1.

A premium of $1 00 will be allowed on the best samples of all other vegetables or farm products not mentioned in the above list such as canned fruits, vegetables etc

The samples winning these prizes will be exhibited at Jamestown with the names of the successful competitors attached.

J. A NOBLE,
Chairman of Executive Committee.

Down in Dinwiddie.

Dear TIMES: The last several copies of the TIMES have been of unusual interest. Your correspondents have been newsy and bewsy especially so with Buckingham and Farmville writers.

We are plodding along down here, wading through mud but patiently waiting for the bright sunshine of spring, when the voice of the ploughman, the songs of the birds and buzz of the mosquito will announce that winter has "gone south" for a season. But winter and I are on good terms. The beautiful snow, lakes and ponds ice covered, glazed and glittering, and the deep, still forests hung with snow and sleet forming a very enchanting fairyland, as such it was recently when I had to drive five miles to a wedding Wednesday, Feb. 20-h and to a funeral Thursday morning, the 21-st, seven miles. "In the midst of life we are in death."

The long hard drives through the mud and cold are well repaid by the generous hospitality of our people who always have a warm welcome, a kind word and hearty greeting for us we are ushered into a cozy sitting room where blazes a cheerful log fire, while my faithful horse has a good stall and plenty of corn. Winter too has its peculiar advantages for study for those who are so inclined. I have not failed to take advantage of the opportunities thus offered.

The man who succeeds at anything in this progressive age must 'know things' he must be abreast of the times. I have sometimes sat in the parlor and heard preachers indulge in mere platitudes, or from sheer sh llowness, rel te string after string of harrowing death stories and incidents to "make the people cry." It was torture to me and I pitied the congregation.

Books, magazines and newspapers are so plentiful and cheap that any man may acquire accurate knowledge on any subject of interest to the world. What the world needs today is men Out in the world there are manifest inequalities. Somehow the machinery seems all out of joint and 'rattles' Oppression has placed its foot upon the toiling masses and the bloody sweat of millions mingles with the dust. Justice is prostituted and law is held in contempt. Life itself seems to have become a mere grab for gold "But in itself money has never made any man happy, or healthy or holy," and "the reckless greed of gain has driven more men away from Jesus Christ than any other passion." Gehazi Judas and Ananias are examples familiar to every Sunday School scholar. I repeat then that the need of the world today is men—manhood. Such as Gov. Hadley, of Indiana, Gov. Hughes, of New York, Gov. Folk, of Missouri, Judge Horace Lurton, of Pennsylvania and some others I might mention."

There is a cry heard throughout the land and the people are being aroused. The day is dawning, a better day, when only clean men will be elected to high places of power and responsibility. The little political boss, the ward heeler who smells of cheap cigars and bad whiskey, he of the bull neck and low forehead, will soon cease to dominate our politics and control our elections. We need men. Some times, in my mind, I contrast the farmer pulling his small load of a few thousand pounds of tobacco with two or three horses twenty miles, through the mud axle deep, to market, and the lawyer congressman whirling along in his "Pullman" to Washington, the market for his statesmanship and service. The farmer will probably get $750 for a whole year's labor, and the congressman will get $7500 for six month's service (?) See?

If you don't throw this in the waste basket I will write again.

May the TIMES enjoy continued success

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. A CARD.

That highly bred California Stallion Monotonia, is now permanently standing at my stock farm, where he may be seen and where also many of his fine colts, which took first prizes at Lynchburg Fair may be seen. Remember that Monotonia himself is a prize-winner and his fine qualities, style and action fully sustain his high breeding and registered pedigree. Call at the farm and see him and get his pedigree.

I am now at my farm where I at all times pay the highest cash prices for all kinds of live-stock. I hope to be of better service to the farmers of Appomattox and this section than ever before.

Very truly,
JOSEPH O'BRIEN,

Do Not Crowd the Season.

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilirating air and sunshine. Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many need their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it.

The Texans will have to pay $50,000 for the fun of "shooting up" Senator Bailey.

Ramon's Brownie Calendar

One of the handsomest 1907 calendars gotten out for the year.

The Ramona Brownie Calendar for 1907 is almost a publication within itself. It contains a vast amount of useful information. This calendar comes in the form of a book 9x11 inches handsomely printed in three colors on heavy enamel paper. Besides the usual data so plainly set down in figures across the large, open book. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea Co. has a weather condition chart of days, church festive days, signs of the zodiac and other useful knowledge. This handsome and useful calendar only sells for ten cents and will be mailed to any address on receipt of price. Address Brown Mfg. Co., Greenville, Texas. Ask your druggist and he will tell you how to get one free.
